Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Mr. Casey:

We would be very grateful if your National Intelligence Officer for Counter-Terror, [redacted] could address a group of senior Army Materiel Command civilian managers and uniformed officers at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, on Tuesday, November 12, 1985. The presentation will cover the issues and problems of terrorism, and it will be off-the-record, unclassified, and without the press. STAT

This is a major Army effort to acquaint its decision makers with the threat and danger of terrorism. All arrangements for his travel will be handled by my staff.

Thank you for this opportunity to serve in a common cause.

Sincerely,

Alan L. Freed
